Subject: RE: CLAIM NO: 673MC457 - Alexander Baron v Argos Ltd

Without prejudice save as to costs

Dear Mr Baron,

I hope this email finds you well.

I have discussed your case with the internal client, and I am instructed that on this occasion, Argos Ltd will refund the price of the Item plus the Court issue fees. The relevant total amount is: £70.98.

Should you be agreeable to our offer, please complete and sign the attached N279 notice of discontinuance, which will need to be filed with the Court, and send your bank details for the subsequent payment.

Upon receipt of your bank details and the e-mail to the Court enclosing your signed notice of discontinuance, I will request that the payment above is made by BACS.

Kind regards,
